ALL ENTOMBED MINERS ARE FOUND DEAD

Searchers Recover Bodies, And Twas Apparent Death Came
Soon After Disaster

Jackson, Cal., Sept. 19.—All 47 of the miners entombed in the Argonaut mine August 27 are dead, it was announced officially shortly before 9 o'clock Monday night.

A note found on one of the bodies indicated that all of the men had died within five hours of the beginning of the fire August 27, officials said.

All the miners were found behind the second of two bulkheads they had built in a cross-cut 4,350 feet down in the Argonaut mine. Byron O. Pickard, chief of the federal bureau of miners for this district, was the first man to go behind the bulkhead and discovered the bodies.

Pickard, on an earlier exploration behind this bulkhead, had counted 42 bodies and expressed the belief then that there were others there.

The note found read as follows:

"3 a. m. gas bad."

The same note bore a scrawled figure "4" apparently indicating that the same man had attempted to leave word for those who might come after of the condition of the mine at that hour.

Mine officials declared that the condition of the ironwork behind the bulkhead was such that life could not have been sustained there by the entombed men for more than five hours.

The bodies were found piled on top of one another and decomposition had progressed so that identification would be impossible, Pickard reported.

The mine officials said that the actions of the men, as evidenced by the bulkheads they built and other matters, indicated they had died within five hours after being entombed.

The officials declared the mute evidence of the men's struggles showed they were 47 of the most cool-headed men imaginable.

Bodies Being Removed

(By Associated Press)
Jackson, Cal., Sept. 19.—The first of the 47 bodies in the Argonaut mine disaster will be brought to the surface before evening. A crew entered the mine today prepared to draw off the gasses. The dead lie 4,350 feet down in the mine behind a bulkhead which the men had erected in their frantic efforts to save themselves. Many of them are without clothing, which they had used to stuff into cracks in an effort to seal themselves against gas from the fire to which the tragedy is directly due.

STONE HEADS POOL ASSOCIATION AGAIN

The Lexington Herald said Tuesday:

President and General Manager James C. Stone, of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, was unanimously re-elected a director of the association for Fayette county, the first district, Monday by the delegates elected by the growers last Saturday. Mr. Stone is said to be the choice of the new directors for his present place as head of the association and chief of its sales department.

United States District Attorney Elliott Northcutt, of Huntington, was elected director for West Virginia. Mr. Northcutt has been the leader in Cabell county, West Virginia, practically ever since the association began its commission in that state.

The only change in the board of directors so far as reported is the voluntary retirement of T. S. Burnam of Richmond, whose district was placed in the same district with N. P. Taylor, of Winchester. Mr. Taylor being re-elected. Their counties, with others, were placed in the nineteenth district, so that the new twenty-second district might be placed in West Virginia. This state is new territory, not having been represented in the first board of directors.

CITY SCHOOLS OPEN BIG HERE MONDAY

High School Increases 100 Per Cent Over Last Year—
Over 200 Present

The Richmond City Schools opened at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning with an increase in attendance over last year and with bright prospects for a very successful year. In the high school there was an increase of over 100 per cent. Last year there were 119 students enrolled at Madison, while this year Superintendent J. H. Payne estimated there were over 200 students present at chapel on the opening day. This large increase is due to the addition of the old Model High School students, as well as many from the high schools in the county. In the first eight grades there was an increase of 30 over last year, 534 students being enrolled Monday.

The High School opening was held in the Rural School building on the Eastern campus where the classes will meet until the new school structure on the hill is ready for use, which is expected to be about the first of January. A. L. Lassiter is again principal of the high school and in charge of all athletics. The remainder of the high school faculty is composed of Miss Curaleen Smith, head of the mathematics and home economics departments; B. P. Gabby, head of the English department; Miss Lucy Gracraft, who is in charge of all foreign languages and Miss Orena McMahon, who teaches all histories and related subjects. The last named is a recent addition to the faculty, all of the others having filed their present positions will much credit last year.

Superintendent Payne, President T. J. Coates of Eastern Normal, and Principal Lassiter spoke a few words to the studentsbody. Supt. Payne in his brief address gave a most cordial welcome to the new students both from Meade and the county. President Coates welcomed the city students to the campus and made them feel at home in every way. In his talk Mr. Lassiter outlined the Madison routine in a very clear and forceful manner. All of the members of the faculty were introduced to the student body and responded with short talks. A most successful year along all lines of school activities is expected.

The number enrolled in each grade up to high school is as follows: 53 in the first; 73 in the second; 59 in the third; 112 in the fourth; 70 in the fifth; 54 in the sixth; 71 in the seventh; 41 in the eighth. Each of the last three grades, namely the sixth, seventh and eighth, has only one teacher, which shows heavy contraction and that some adjustment is necessary.

And Brown, formerly of Letcher county, drove thru from Miss Sonri to his former home in a covered wagon with his wife and two children.

MARSHALL HURST FIRST PRIZE

In Robinson Contest Published Few Weeks Ago—Many Answers Given

Winners in the "Robinson Crusoe" contest which was in the Daily Register two weeks ago, have been decided. Such a large number of answers were mailed to the Contest Editor, that it was impossible to reach a decision in less time. All of the replies were good; some of them showing work and talent.

It was a novel advertising for the merchants who placed ads on the Robinson Crusoe page, hundreds of the Daily Register subscribers read and studied ads in order to complete or tie the free tickets for this splendid serial picture, the third episode offering next Monday.

Marshall Hurst has been selected winner of the first prize; Mildred Young, second; and LaVerne Winburn, third. These young people will be present with tickets at the box office either at the Alhambra or opera house Monday. The winning answer is published below.

The Ten Things I Would

Want And Why
Along about the years 1719 or 1720, when Dan Defoe wrote "Robinson Crusoe," he little dreamed that his work would live to be appreciated in 1922; nor when he cast his "leading man" upon that desert island did Robinson Crusoe have an opportunity to call upon those sensible Richmond merchants who believe that it "pays to advertise." Crusoe could hardly have seen their advertisements two hundred years ago when they were printed only two days ago; nevertheless there are fifteen to twenty thousand people who will see them.

Were I to be shipwrecked on an island similar to Crusoe's I would surely remember those 10 advertisements on page five of Saturday's Register. Those ten merchants should make one very comfortable. First and most important, I suppose, would be the food found at the Quaker, Main Store, and the flour that Parks & Son could easily supply. Next I would want guns and ammunition, that T. J. Moberly would furnish, then the house that I could build with the lumber from S. C. Smith and the tools that C. C. Smith would sell. I wouldn't be a good supply.

I would like a bed. I don't think Mr. Push'n sells anything made for men but if he send me the suit with knickerbockers that he had some time ago it would be more appreciated than a suit of goatskin. I could at least wear the knickerbockers. Of course I couldn't live all alone for very long and if a "Friday" or a "Princess" from the "Lost City" couldn't be found I would get Everett Sandlin to move me to some other place. I have not yet said why I would call on the above mentioned merchants or firms. The reason applies to all. This reason. They had sense enough to advertise.—Marshall Hurst.

MADISON ELEVEN LEAVES CAMP

The Madison Hi football squad has returned from a very successful football training trip of a week at Boonesboro and engaged in a spirited practice on the Normal gridiron Monday afternoon. Coach Lassiter is very encouraging in his remarks about the team and the fans who witnessed the practice Monday see no reason why he should not be. He says that the prospects are much brighter for a winning aggregation than at this time last year and that he sees no reason why the team should not win a big majority of their games. He also says that the week at Boonesboro, besides affording some advanced trainings has been worth more to the locals than two weeks spent here. The last two days spent at camp were as successful as the first few. Mentor Lassiter put the boys thru some stiff work on the grass, including blocking, tackling and signal work. Several new men reported for practice Monday afternoon. The season army open either Friday or Saturday of this week if a game can be secured for Richmond. If this game is not played the opening of the season will be here Friday, September 29, when the fast Stanford Hi eleven comes here for a game. Some real work will be put in before that date.

VO TRACHOMA IN STATE LAST YEAR

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 19.—Trachoma, with which a large proportion of the male inmates of the Feeble Minded Institute here were affected, has been entirely eradicated during the past year, according to a report made today by the State Board of Charities and Corrections. Health conditions generally have been improved at the institution and the entire population has been vaccinated against small pox and immunized against typhoid, the report says.

The improved health conditions, according to the report, are in large measure due to improvements which have been made in the buildings on the Feeble Minded Institute grounds and on the farm.

At the farm colony, a short distance from the institute proper, a new dairy building has been constructed to replace the one destroyed by fire on the institute grounds. The building was constructed with inmate labor under the supervision of an experienced contractor. A modern slaughter house also has been built at the farm colony.

Floors at the institute proper, which were in a "notoriously bad condition because of excessive strong scrubbing solutions in previous years," have been replaced and the entire interior of the main building has been painted and renovated. Considerable new equipments have been installed in the laundry and engine room.

Improved sanitary conditions not only have resulted in better health for the inmates, but have tended to increase the morale of the patients, according to the report.

THE WORLD'S FASTEST

Three paces, each with a record better than 2:00, have been named for the Board of Commerce Purse ($2,000) to be decided at the Lexington Trotting October. Margaret Dillon 1:59 1-2. Murphy driver. Sanardo 1:59 3-4. Geers. Sir Rich 1:59 3-4. Dean. This is the first time in the history of trotting and pacing that three horses with records better than 2:00 have been entered in the same race. But this is not all, for along with them are four each one with a record better than 2:01 1-2, viz: Hal Mahone 2:01. Marvin Childs: John Henry, 2:01 1-2. Walter Cox: Johnny Quirk, 2:01 1-4. Fred Egan: Jimmy McKerron, 2:01 1-4. Nay Ray. A desperate race is certain and good judges predict the race record will be broken.

Both the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association and the Lexington Board of Commerce, in whose honor the race has been named, are to be congratulated on this list of wonderful horses. For, as stated above, no other Association has ever succeeded in bringing together such a field of extremely fast horses.

What I Have Learned in 47 Years Practice

I HAVE been watching the results of constipation for 47 years, since I began the practice of medicine back in 1875. I am now 87 years old, and though from time to time the medical profession makes some wonderfully interesting experiments and tests, the fundamentals of causes and relief in this particular ailment are unchanged.

But the people take greater interest today in their health, in diet, exercise and the drinking of water. Constipation, however, will recur from time to time no matter how one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. I believe in getting as close to nature as possible, hence my remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It is made of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. Children will not willingly take bitter things. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written me to that effect.

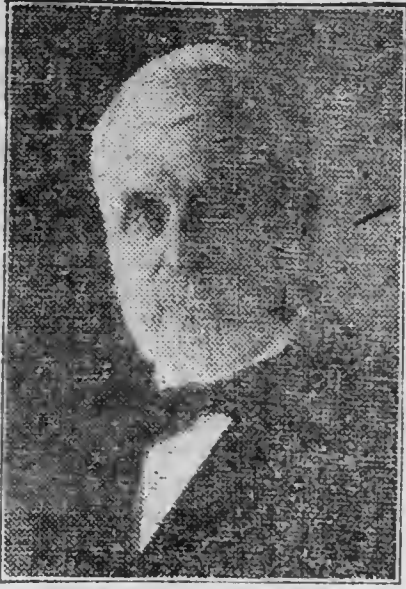

Over 10 million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are now sold every year, and it is the most widely bought family laxative in the world. I say family laxative because all in the family can use it with safety. It is mild enough for the infant in arms, effective in the most chronic constipation of an adult. The formula is on every package.

Recently there has been a new wave of drastic physics. Calomel, a mercurial that salivates and loosens teeth, has been revived; salt waters and powders that draw needed constituents from the blood; coal tar disguised in candy form that causes skin eruptions. In a practice of 47 years I have never seen any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping, and without shock to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It lowers your strength 25 per cent, burdens the arteries and brings on premature old age! Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope but go to a druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a generous-size bottle. Take a teaspoonful that night and by morning you will be well. The cost is only about a cent a dose. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, piles, indigestion, loss of appetite or sleep, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

I REPEAT MY FREE OFFER:
$10,000 worth of trial bottles of Syrup Pepsin free

Last year I agreed to spend $10,000 cash for free samples of my Syrup Pepsin, and send them free and postage paid to all who asked. A tremendous mail was the result. But here must be many who did not write. I would like to get their address this time. So I am repeating my offer, in remembrance of my approaching 87th birthday, and will again devote $10,000 to free samples. I am anxious to see one in every American home. Write for yours today. Simply give me your address. Send it to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 515 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Mine is truly a free gift; it costs the public nothing.

WOMAN TOO WEAK TO WALK

New Works Nine Hours a Day.—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Strength

Union Village, Vt.—"I was weak and nervous and all run-down. I could not walk across the floor without resting and I had been that way for weeks. I saw your advertisement in the paper and after taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt the good it was doing me and I took seven more in all. Before I finished I was able to work nine hours a day in a steam laundry. I cannot say too much in favor of your medicine. I trust all sick and suffering women will take it. It has been two years since I took it and I am strong and well."

—Mrs. L. A. GUIMANN, Union Village, Vermont.

This is only one of such letters we are continually publishing showing what Lydia E. Pinkham has done for women, and whether you work or not Mrs. Guimann's letter should interest you.

Many women get into a weak, nervous run down condition because of ailments they often have. Such women should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the first sign of trouble. Good health is necessary and this splendid medicine will help you to keep it.

CLARENCE WOODS
FINDS OLD FRIEND

The Lebanon Enterprise the other day received a letter from Clarence E. Woods, formerly of this city, but who has been making his home in Florida for a number of years. Mr. Woods is now secretary of the Sumter County (Florida) Chamber of Commerce at Bushnell, Fla. He states that he is delighted with his new home. Sumter county, he says, was probably the richest soil for general farming in all Florida. He says that "it raises everything and then more of it than would feed Marion and Nelson and Washington counties."

Mr. Woods incloses with his letter a copy of one he wrote to the Literary Digest which he thinks may be of interest to old friends in Marion county who knew and loved Walter Burns.

The letter follows:
"Page 45, Literary Digest, August 19, has a striking article from pen of Walter Noble Burns.
"Pass this letter along to him;
that he may know that forty-eight years ago I was a playmate of one Walter Burns, a son of a gallant Colonel Burns, of Lebanon, Ky. I suppose we were thrown together only as little cubwolves of 8 to 10, in a little school. But I remember the boy —handsome beyond all his companions; dignified; a good scrapper and popular already with the women."

"In 1876, an orphan, I moved to Louisville, Ky.; railroaded after I won highest honors in War-
School; entered Centre College and then married at Richmond, Ky., in 1886; Secretary to United States Senator J. B. McCreary of Kentucky; Mayor of Richmond, Ky.; editor and grand recorder for nineteen years of Sigma Nu College Fraternity; founded Lebanon, Ky., Enterprise 1886. It is now edited by a son of Judge G. G. Kelly, known to Walter Burns. I am now secretary of the Sumter
County Chamber of Commerce
at Bushnell, Fla., a rich general farming section.

"I feel almost sure that Walter Noble Burns is my old playmate —for his middle name is that of a distinguished family who then lived in Lebanon, Ky.—the Nobles."

Ironized Yeast
Brings Marvelous
Beauty to Skin

Science Now Proves How Complexion Is Quickly Beautified
Through the Blood

There is nothing in the world today which is producing such a sensation as this simple discovery!
Pick out anyone who has healthy rosy cheeks and a ravishingly beautiful complexion, and you have picked out an individual whose blood

"Ironized Yeast Has Cleared My Skin Quickly and Gloriously!"

is rich with vitamins and iron.
This recipe of Nature, "Ironized Yeast," is now being used by thousands of men and women with startling, yet perfectly natural, results.
It gives you yeast-vitamins—ironized, containing iron in the form in which it exists in the human body.
It is not a mere mixture of yeast and iron, but is yeast ironized, which is a substance all by itself. Madness, that great beauty robber, gives way to a lily-purity which nothing else on earth can produce. Pimples, blackheads, spots, eruptions? They become practically an impossibility!
Finer and firmer and younger looking skin, rose-petal purity, velvety softness—all natural! Imagine rich, a skin further beautified by your favorite cream and powder.
To think of it is lovely. To have it is a miracle. Begin taking Ironized Yeast today. There is no ironized yeast in the world, sold by druggists at $1.00 a package.
Each package contains 10 tablets.
Each tablet is sealed. They never lose their power. Affix only by Ironized Yeast Co., Atlanta, Ga. Get ready to be supremely happy.

Liberty fair these mules won as the best team of mare mules, py moments he experienced recently on a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beaven, north of Loretto in Marion county, recently, as follows: After a few moments of conversation Mr. Beaven observed that we were a little chilled from the il-effects of the rapid and northern wind and like magic he disappeared and reappeared and loaded down a table with all sizes of glasses and silver sugar bowls.

Then he set on a two-foot bottle of Scotch whisky, 35 years old; another of good old red, 25 years old; another of the celebrated J. P. Dant, 15 years old and a decanter of blackberry cordial made by his wife many year ago. Then it was worth a line and a quarter to see the sweet sweet smiles upon R. E.'s

(Mr. Winsatt, his companion)
What followed was a plenty.
Then after a few moments' hesitation, meditation and strengthning our nerves, silvery bells rattled us to the dining table that was loaded down with good old ham and 3-year-old ham (I hardly ever have one to be a yearling and everything in accordance to compare with the table we left behind us.
